

Elizabeth J. Lindsay Called By Death

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Lindsay, 67, widow of James L. Lindsay, died at her home in Heber Monday following an extended illness.

A native of Utah, she was born in Heber, September 3, 1877. She was an active L D S church worker, having been president of the Y. L. M. I. A. in the Heber 1st ward. She was also a Sunday School teacher.

With her at time of death were her nine daughters. Her only son preceded her in death.

Surviving are her daughters, Mrs. Vera Rasband, Mrs. Bertha Nielsen and Mrs. Vilate Wall, Heber; Mrs. Agnes Parkinson, Hamilton Field, California; Mrs. Mary Nelson, Layton; Mrs. Della Ostlund, Topaz, Millard County; Mrs. Edna Carlile, Tungsten, Nevada; Mrs. LaRae Lenzi, Richmond, Calif.; Mrs. Merle Moss, Woods Cross. Also surviving are 21 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren; five sisters and a brother, Mrs. Mary Thomas, Mrs. Mabel Hylton, Wallace Jones, Heber; Mrs. Frank Ryan and Mrs. Nora Murdock, Salt Lake City, and Mrs. Ted Bennion, Vernal.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle with Bishop Heber M. Rasband in charge. Interment was in the Heber cemetery.

James Lyon Lindsay was born September 21, 1873, at Heber, Utah, to William and Mary Mair Lindsay. His father took up a homestead about three miles east of Heber and the family moved there in 1877.

Here, Jim (or Jimmy, as he was sometimes called) spent his boyhood days, helping his father with the farm work. He attended school and Church in Heber. He attended Wasatch Stake Academy in Heber when it was established in 1889. In 1901 he moved his family to Provo, Utah, where he took a missionary course at the Brigham Young Academy. 414

Jim began herding sheep when he was 14 years old and a few years later was able to acquire a herd of his own. This was his vocation throughout his life.

Elizabeth Jones was born September 3, 1877, to Richard and Agnes Campbell Jones, at Heber, Utah. The two-room house in which she was born was located across the street, south of what is now the Wasatch High School. She went to school at Sleepy Hollow, two blocks west from where she lived.

In 1899 the Jones family moved to Center to live on a farm. Lizzie attended school and Church in this community. She was active in sports.

At times she used to work for other people, and when she was 10 years old she received 50 cents a week, and with her first savings she bought a pair of shoes for $1.50.

She was trained to think of her home responsibilities. When she was away from home a little while in the afternoon she knew it was her duty to go home and help with the evening chores.

James Lyon Lindsay and Elizabeth Jones were married in the Salt Lake Temple on July 31, 1895. They made their home at Center and both took an active part in the Church and community.

While living here, six of their 10 children were born, namely: Vera (Mrs. Walter J. Rasband), Agnes (Mrs. Wallace B. Parkinson), Mary (Mrs. Kenneth H. Nelson), Della (Mrs. Clarence Ostlund), and Richard J., the only boy in the family, who married Arvilla Duke; Edna (who married William Carlisle, who died in a mine explosion, and she later was married to Dick Lane).

In 1903, Jim bought a ranch in Magrath, Canada, but the family only lived there a short time and returned to Utah on account of his wife having a very serious case of mastoid trouble. He sold his property in Canada and again made a home at Center.

Jim left his home to fill an LDS mission in the Northwestern States in July, 1906. Lizzie was left to care for five children, and John Allen, his brother, took over the care of his sheep. He returned in August, 1908.

In 1909 the family moved to Heber and bought a home one block east of the bank, where Bertha (Mrs. Adolph M. Nielsen) 416 and Merle (Mrs. S. Lawrence Moss) were born. Then, in 1916, they bought the home of Dr. Ray Hatch, two blocks east of the Exchange, where they were living when they died. In this house, LaRae (Mrs. Wilson Lenzi) and Vilate (Mrs. Russell Wall) were born.

Jim served as a member of the City Council and as a counselor in Heber First Ward bishopric and was a ward teacher.

Lizzie worked as an officer of the MIA about 20 years, a Relief Society teacher, working on the Sunshine Committee, and an officer in the Red Cross.

Jim died from a sudden heart attack at Curren Creek, Utah, on October 15, 1932.

Lizzie died after many months of illness at her home in Heber on June 11, 1945. 415
